Again, there are many bass tabs for this song (although none on this site, I noticed) which everyone thinks are correct. And I thought were correct, until i watched a short movie clip on the muse site showing chris recording the song in the studios. In this clip, the synth is off, and you can hear it much clearer. From watching what is being played on that, I have created this.

This is note for note what is played on Time is Running Out as found on the album "Absolution" I have included timings etc. as I have created a Guitar Pro file of this song for a friends Music Technology coursework and then exported from it, leaving the note lengths etc. in. I am also submitting a complete guitar tab for this song.

Enjoy :)
